NUMB. 1878

MONDAY, DECEMBER 21. 1741.

Presbourg, Dec. 12.

HE Anonymous Piece lately publish'd, with the Title of A Letter from the Noble Hungarian Irenæus C., to the Grandees of the Kingdom, to exhort them to submit to the Elector of Bavaria, and to own him for their King, has engaged the said Nobility to answer it by another Piece, intituled, The Answer of the Noble Hungarian Stephen Iza- to the pretended Noble Hungarian Irenæus C.—The Answer appears both in Latin and High Dutch. It is too long to be translated entirely, but the following is an Extract of it; viz.

If the pretended Irenæus, who parades in vain with the Title of the Noble Hungarian, had but a right Notion of the Zeal of the Hungarians for their Country; if he was acquainted with its Fundamental Constitutions, and if he did but reflect with what Prudence the States of Hungary behave in their Dyets, instead of disapproving the vigorous Resolutions of the last Diet, he would cry them up as just and necessary.

The disadvantageous Idea which our Enemies have form'd to themselves of the Resources of the Hungarian Nation is equally absurd; and as they know our Poverty, we can say, that we are not ignorant of the present Situation of their Finances. In short, we must not lose Sight of the old Saying, That a Hungarian has more than too much nor too little.

The Union by which, continues the Author, we are engag'd to stand by our Lawful Queen, to the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, is a Proof that the Seeds of Division are all sited among us, and that it would be Labour in vain for our Enemies to seek to foment it. If Discord formerly prevail'd in this Kingdom, its Reign is at an End, the Queen having extirpated it forever, by her Wisdom, Equity, and Goodness.

Then the Author answers the Objection against the Hungarian Troops, for not having wrought Miracles in the late Wars, by saying, 'That the small Number of Men which there was in Silesia, in Italy, and upon the Rhine, has nevertheless done Services; that if they had been more numerous, their Services would have been more important; that the Hungarian Nation is as capable as any other for Pitch'd Battles; and, in short, that Men may be inur'd to Order and Discipline, but that where Bravery is wanting it cannot be given.

As to the Rights of the Queen, he says, 'tis not question'd by most of the Princes and States, and that they think the Maintenance of the Pragmatick Sanction absolutely necessary for the Security of the Germanick Liberty, and the Preservation of the Balance of Power; but that the Circumstances of Affairs don't permit them to explain themselves.

As to the Pretensions of the Family of Bavaria to Hungary, in Right of the Archduchess Anne, and by virtue of the Will of Ferdinand I. he observes, that if that Prince had been ever so little inclin'd to make any Settlements of the Nature of those pretended to have been made in his Will, he could not possibly have done it, because in his Time the Kingdom of Hungary was Elective, and continued so even to the Dyet of Oedenbourg in 1687. when the States settled the Succession in favour of the Male Descendants of the Emperor Leopold. The same Thing was confirm'd by the Dyet of Presbourg in 1715. and 'twas not till the Dyet in 1723, that the Succession was extended for the first Time to the Females, by expressly confining it nevertheless to the Daughters of the Emperors Leopold, Joseph, and Charles VI.

To conclude, says the Author of this Answer, 'I protest to you, that we are all so affected with Esteem, Love, and Zeal for our Queen, and so convinc'd that her Virtues and great Qualities deserve the most happy Reign, that if she had not the Right to the Crown which she really has, and if we were still at Liberty to dispose of it, we should offer it to this incomparable Princess, preferably to any other, and would take Arms to save it on her Head, as often as Occasion should require. In short, 'tis superfluous to exhort us to Gratitude towards the House of Bavaria. We have no Design to recapitulate to all the Christian World, that we might do it, what Successors we have receiv'd from that Family: We are sensible of the Value of them, as we have felt the Effects of them; but you must acknowledge, on the other hand, that these Services give no Right to the Crown, but only to a just Return, which shall never be wanting, &c.

Boston, Nov. 3. Last Tuesday Capt. Thompson, in his Majesty's Ship Success, (our Station Ship) arriv'd here, by whom we have Advice, that on the 23d of October last, about 80 Leagues to the Eastward of Cape Anne, they met a Sloop in the greatest Distress imaginable: She came from Belfast in Ireland, and was bound to Philadelphia with 108 Passengers, but having been out 17 Weeks, they were so distressed for Provisions that about 30 had died for Want, among whom were the Master and all the sailors but one, so that they could neither manage the Sails or steer the Vessel. They had eat up all their Tallow, Candies, &c. and for several Weeks had fed upon the Bodies of those that died; and when the People from the Success Man of War went on board, they found the Body of a Man lying upon Deck partly cut up, and his Arm and Shoulder then boiling in the Pot, in Salt Water, (which had been their only Drink for a long time) and so eager were the poor famish'd People for the Flesh of their dead Companions, that many of them had conceal'd Pieces of it in their Pockets; to eat as they had Opportunity. Capt. Thompson was so affected with their miserable Circumstances, that he behav'd towards them with the utmost Humanity and Compassion; he put on board a Midshipman and three other Hands to navigate the Vessel, and gave them Beef, Bread, Water, Wine, and many other Necessaries, sufficient to support them for several Weeks, ordering the Provisions to be at first given to them with the utmost Discretion, according to the Doctor's Advice, at the same time directing them to steer for this Port; and last Saturday the Sloop arriv'd, but so many of the People have dy'd since the Man of War left them, that their Number is reduc'd to 62, and several of them are so weak that 'tis fear'd they will not recover. All possible Care is taken of them, by Order of the Select Men. The Master's Name was Ebenezer Clark, and the Owner's Name is Josiah Thompson, who lives in New-Haven in Connecticut.

Williamsburgh in Virginia, Oct. 21. We have receiv'd the following Account from Hampton, that John Cheshire of the Brig Elizabeth, on the 5th of Septemb. last, in his Voyage from St. Kitts to South Carolina, in Lat. 28:30 met with a French Ship the Le Fleor, of Rochel, bound home from St. Domingo, of 24 Carriage and two Swivel Guns, laden with Sugar, Indigo, and Elephants Teeth, in a sinking Condition, 10 Feet Water in her Hold, and her Fore-mast, Main-top-mast and Mizzen-mast carried away by a Hurricane two Days before. The Brigantine took all the People on board, being 34 Seamen, the Captain, and 23 Passengers, some of whom are Persons of Distinction, and brought them to Hampton.

This Week arriv'd in James River, the Snow Molly, of Bristol, from Africa, with near 100 Slaves.

A Snow, Spanish built, about 100 Tons, having 120 Men, 14 Carriage Guns and 14 Swivels, a high cock'd up Head, a Waste Cloth all round her to hide her Ports, freezed with black and yellow Paint, her Oars upon the Quarter, and sails badly upon a Wind.

A Schooner, Spanish built, about 80 Tons, having 80 Men, 8 Carriage Guns and about 16 Swivels, long and low, 2 Top-mast Yards rigged, her Sides painted blue, and Streaks yellow. A Sloop, Rhode Island built, about 90 Tons, having 100 Men, 10 or 12 Carriage Guns besides Swivels, her Sides painted blue, square Stern, with four Windows. A Sloop, Bermudas built, about 10 Tons, having 90 Men, 6 Carriage and 12 Swivel Gun, very sharp built, Mast rises much aft, 2 Windows only in her Stern, her Quarters painted green, Mouldings yellow, and Sides black, and is a Prime Sailer.

A Sloop, Maryland built, about 50 Tons, having 10 Men, 8 Carriage and several Swivel Guns, high Stern, her Sides painted yellow, and Mouldings white. L O N D O N, December 21.

They write from Vienna, that when the Queen of Hungary return'd thither from Presbourg she was welcomed by the firing of the Cannon from the Ramparts, and the ringing of all the Bells, and by 12,000 of the Burghers under their Arms; and that when she arriv'd at the Gate of Hungary, she alighted out of her Coach into a Chair, wherein she took a Tour round the Counter-Scarp, to see the Repairs and Additions made to the Fortifications of the City during her Absence.

Letters from Lisbon say the King expected by the Fernambucca Fleet a Diamond which they say will cut out all that have ever been known, it being of the Size of a Cake of Chocolate, and valu'd at a hundred Millions. It was found in a River.

They write from Brussels, that Mr. Daniel the British Resident there has declar'd to the Count de Harrach the Governor General, by Order of his Britannick Majesty, that the Report of the King of Great Britain's contracting or having a Thought of contracting any Engagements to the Prejudice of the Queen of Hungary, was false and scandalous: And the same Declaration has been made at the Hague by Mr. Trevor, who has receiv'd Orders to make fresh Instances there to engage the Republick to form some vigorous Resolutions, that his Britannick Majesty may thereby the better encourage the present Disposition of the English Nation to make the utmost Efforts for the Re-establishment of the Balance of Power in Europe.

'Tis believ'd, that the States General have quite drop'd all Thoughts of a Neutrality, and that the Result of their present Deliberations will be to prepare for War by Sea and Land, pursuant to the Petition of the Council of State. Mr. Trevor the British Minister has neglect'd nothing for some time past to engage the chief Members of the Province in the Views of the King his Master; and on the contrary, the Marquis de Fencion continues to inspire them with quite different Sentiments.

We hear a Marriage will shortly be concluded between Mr. William Abree, jun. of Winchester, and Rebecca Bradburn, an agreeable young Lady, of some Fortune, and every Virtue ornate.

On Friday last was held a Board of Admiralty, in their Lordships were pleas'd to appoint to be Captain of the Bridgewater, in the Fleet, Mr. P. lately made Captain of the Diamond.

The same Day died in an advanc'd Age, after a short Illness, at his Seat at North Aston in Oxfordshire, Sir Francis Page, Knt. one of the Judges of the Court of King's-Bench. He was made a Judge in the latter Part of the Reign of Queen Anne.

Yesterday the Ceremony of throwing out Bread and Cheese from Paddington Church Steeple, was perform'd according to Annual Custom, by which the Parish holds Lands to the Value of 61. per Ann. for ever; being a Legacy given by two Maiden Sisters, who were in great Want, and found Relief there.

Patriot Proceedings.

The whole Art and Mystery of Lying learnedly explain'd, with the true Rules for distinguishing White Lies from Black, by his Craftsmaster Caleb D'Anvers, Lyar in ordinary to a certain great Lady.

Also the Antiquity and Advantages of Puffing display'd by the Champion, who is now no more regarded, even by the Malecontents, than an old Pair of Bellows, because he has puff'd himself out of Credit and Breath.

Popish Proceedings.

Abundance of strange Facts advanc'd in Common Sense, to be believ'd by such English Protestants as have a good Opinion of a Roman Creed, and a Punick Conscience.

The Wits of the D. P. a Wool-gathering, as usual.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

And also of

IMPOTENCY in MEN, whenever occasion'd, or of even so long standing,

The Famous and Inestimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and infallible Cure

for BARRENNESS in Women and IMPOTENCY in Men in the Universe, and which it at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the cheerful Curric of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid, depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and sensibly it renovates, recruits, and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It infuses a bright, lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression. A-bundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deemed incurably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living, or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inasmuch, that very many illustrious Families, who for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs. It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even keeps back the Effects of Old Age itself. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

The uncommon Success, near Forty Years last past, of the so much famed and only true Original

ROYAL CHYMICAL WASH-BALL,

FOR beautifying the Face, Neck and Hands; hath induced many Envious Persons, not only in every Part of London, but in many Places in the Country, to sell a Counterfeit White Ball (which may prove prejudicial, as well as ineffectual) in Imitation of the true one.

To prevent as much as possible any Mistakes in Prejudice to our Customers, we give this special Notice, That the True Sort are now sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, the Blue coat Boy, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill; and at Mrs. Giles's, a Miliner, at the Blue Ball near the Inner Temple Gate in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Ball, or 12 to the Dozen; but no Allowance for less than 12 Balls at a Time, nor will they ever be sold any where else, except Notice be first given in these Advertisements of it.

Their true and real Virtues have been sufficiently attested in all the Years that they have been sold by Publication, and are more so, as they are still more than ever used and admired by both Sexes of the best Quality, and many Thousands of Country and others, for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be paralleled by any Wash or Wash-ball, &c. of any Kind or Form; for these Balls are indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ringworm, the Morpew, Sunburn, Scurf, Pimple, Pitt, or Redness of the Small-Pox, and keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness, they soon alter red or rough Hands; are admirable in shaving the Head, not only giving a most exquisite Sharpness to the Razor, but so comfort the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury, and may be taken for their Safety.

THE Importance of the Woollen Manufactory is a Point where- in all Parties are agreed, and in the Encouragement of this Manufacture all honest Men will certainly concur. We have been told this in the most solemn Assemblies, we have received the utmost Assurances thereof on every Occasion, and in every Manner we could expect; and therefore, if in a Time of such Political Doubts and Jealousies, it be possible to be certain of any Thing, we may be certain of this, that there is no Man in the Kingdom so blind, as not to discern the Consequence of the Woollen Trade, or so profigately wicked as not to desire the promoting of it to the utmost of his Power.

This being so, it seems requisite, in the next Place, to enquire into its present Condition; in regard to which, the Petitions and Representations made to Parliament are sufficient to instruct us. After reading and considering these, it is impossible that we should doubt, that it is now in a less flourishing Condition than it was heretofore; that Foreigners interfere with us therein; and that it deserves a National Concern to remedy these Mischiefs, and, if possible, to restore that valuable Trade, which was so beneficial to our Ancestors, and of such Consequence to us, to its former flourishing Condition, or at least to the best Situation of which in the present Circumstances of Things it is capable. This is fit, this is necessary to be done; and whoever inclines either to omit or neglect it, is beyond question no Friend to the Publick, how loud soever his Pretences may be to Patriotism and Publick Spirit; which we may be sure will be always most in the Mouths of such as have least of them in their Hearts, since no Man was ever yet so hardy as to profess himself openly an Enemy to his Country.

To cure any Disease, to redress any Grievance, the only regular Way is to enquire first into its real Cause; for as it is a Maxim that will never deceive, that if you take away the Cause the Effect will cease; so it is from thence very plain, that the Cause must first be known, before its Effects can be removed. Now this can only be reach'd by a fair Enquiry; for if any Set of Men amongst us should assume a Right of dictating to us what this Cause is, we may be certain that we shall never come at the End we intend, since it will be impossible for us to know whether we are right in the first Step. Reason teaches, and Experience convinces us of the Folly of submitting in any Thing which may be understood, to the Presumption of such as affect Infallibility in their Decisions, without having either greater Abilities, or a Power of making more extensive Enquiries, than their Neighbours.

To give up therefore our Right in this respect, is to declare ourselves no Friends to the Woollen Manufacture; since if we really were so, we should act in another Manner. The great Council of the Nation in the last Sessions of Parliament gave us a noble Proof of this, by directing a Publick Enquiry into this very Thing; by which certainly they intended that every Man should speak his Sentiments freely, that the Truth might be made unquestionably manifest.

With great Sorrow every honest Man must see, that there are in this Nation Men of quite another Disposition, Men who expect not that the State of the Woollen Manufactory should be examined into, and all possible Methods used for its Improvement; but that their Notions should be implicitly receiv'd, their Directions without Hesitation obey'd, and their Schemes, however repugnant to Common Sense, however incompatible with the People's Freedom, carried into immediate Execution. Of this the following Letter is a clear, a demonstrative Proof, and is such an Instance of a tyrannical Spirit, as I think ought not to be borne from any Administration; tho' from the present Behaviour of some People it seems to be hard to say, whether the Honour of the Mischief be not swift enough to bear any Thing, — so it come not from the Government.

To the Author of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

I AM a Clothier, and heartily sorry to see the Decay of the Woollen Manufactory. But as I can't think of all owing to the running of Wool to France, I've been tempted to blot half a Sheet with my Reasons and some Objections to Webber's Scheme by an Universal Register, and to all Registers in general, by whomsoever contriv'd. This I design'd to address to my Brethren of the Woollen Manufactory, and communicate to them by means of the Gloucester Journal, whom I would have paid to Content. But I was surpriz'd to be told, that he would not publish it at any rate, because he thought me not in the Interest of Trade, an Enemy to Webber, and a Friend to the Court. This vex'd me a little, because I really think we are in Danger, and the Remedy propos'd will prove worse than the Disease. I wish you would be so good to spare me just so much Room to desire the Fraternity not to act heedlessly, and suffer themselves to be betray'd into a real, to prevent an imaginary Evil. I am ready to think the French laughs to hear what a Sputter we drive, as if there was no Wool but in Great Britain and Ireland, when nothing is more certain than that there's better Wool than the best of ours in several Places of Europe and Africa, where the French may supply themselves without the Danger and Charge that attends their having of it from Great Britain. As for the silly, ridiculous Story advanc'd by Webber and the Draper, that the French can't manufacture their Wool without the Help of ours, it shews they have little Judgment in Wool, and but a very little Understanding in the Woollen Manufacture. For there's no more Truth in it than in another idle Story common in the Mouths of the Ignorant, that we can't manufacture Spanish Wool without the Help of English; which every Man concern'd in making Spanish Cloth knows to be notoriously false. I am sincerely in the Interest of Trade, and,

Your most humble Servant,

Nov. 23, 1741.

A Ship laden with Lead and Salmon, suppos'd from Scotland for Venice, was lately lost in the Adriatick Sea.

From Rosthern in Cheshire we hear, that a few Days since, their Steeple tumbled down suddenly about Six o' Clock in the Evening, whereby the Galleries of several Families were beat down, and other Damages done to the Church. 'Tis happy for the Town that it fell down in the Evening; there being the greatest School for teaching Arithmetick and the Mathematics in all that County kept directly under it, Numbers of those Scholars must inevitably have perished, had it fallen in School Hours.

Last Week died at Warrington in Lancashire, that truly pious Gentleman the Rev. Mr. Hewett, universally known and belov'd thro' the Counties of Lancashire and Cheshire, for his laborious Preaching, and indefatigable Pains to inculcate the Reasonableness of a religious Life, by Doctrine and Practice.

They write from Cambridge, that the Rev. Mr. Richardson, Fellow of Jesus College, has resign'd the Living of St. Clement's in that Town, in favour of the Rev. Mr. Burton, Fellow of Pembroke Hall.

Yesterday Mr. Mead, Son of Dr. Mead, was married to Miss Gower, Sister to Charles Gower, Esq; of Ormond-street, Knight of the Shire for the County of Hertford; a young Lady of great Beauty and Merit, and a Fortune of 10000 l.

On Sunday last the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Norwich ordained five Deacons and four Priests, at Ely Chapel in Holbourn.

Last Week died in Jermyn-street, St. James's, the Lady of William Strickland, Esq; Member of Parliament for Beverley in Yorkshire.

'A Pamphlet hath been twice publish'd within this Twelvemonth, call'd, A Present for an Apprentice, which, on Account of its unpromising Title, I don't question, but many others as well as myself have overlook'd; seemingly calculated for low and unexperienc'd Life, it excited no Curiosity in those above that Level. 'Twas therefore with not a little Surprise, that on dipping into it, I found such a System of Morality and Oeconomy as Persons of all Ranks might improve by, deliver'd in such a Style, as the most accomplish'd Readers might be delighted with: In short, a Work, which if universally known, would be an universal Good, as containing all the Requisites to render Mankind, honest, wise, sociable, and virtuous.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr.
Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handsomeness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, fair, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Flecks, roughness, Morpew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly, for it quickly makes the Skin become so comparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholder.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and thro' brown, red or rough to a natural, youthful Fairness, smoothness, and softness, guaranteeing Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Mercurial, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is every agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it, under various other Names, beware the force of such impostitions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.

The HEMORRHOIDS or PILES.

A very troublesome Distemper, common to many Persons of both Sexes, and all Ages, and if neglected, or ill managed, often proving dangerous in the Consequences, and being seldom thoroughly cur'd without Relapse,

IS the Reason of this Publication, that all such Persons of either Sex, or any Age, may know where to have present Relief, and in a few days a perfect Cure, let their Case be ever so bad, or the Piles of any Kind, vi-ward or outward, swell'd or bleeding, or of the very worst Sort that ever was known.

By a pleasant and delightful Chymical Powder, so certain in its Effects, that not one in five thousand that take it will of a Cure, and safe in Operation, that the most aged, or even young Infants, may take it with the greatest Safety, for it neither purges nor causes the least Disorder to the Patient, only operates gently by Urine, and keeps the Body cool and temperate; but it very powerfully resolves both the blood and Juices, takes off the Acridities thereof, which is the true Cause of this Distemper, and destroys it Root and Branch, so that many thousands that have taken it find to their unspeakable Comfort and Satisfaction.

It is sold at 3 s. 6 d. each Box, at Mr. King's Picture Shop in the Poultry; and at Mr. Martin's, a Brogue Shop, the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland, in Cranbourne-Alley near Leicester-Fields, and no where else in England.
